

Review
for the EDUCATIONAL- PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM
"CHORAL, OPERA AND SYMPHONY CONDUCTING"
first (Bachelor) level of higher education
"Bachelor" degree of higher education (specialty: 025 Music Art)
at Kharkiv I.P. Kotlyarevsky National University of Arts

The presented educational-professional program has a systematic approach to ensuring the quality training of specialists of the first (Bachelor) level of higher education in the specialty 025 Music Art.

The educational-professional program reflects general characteristics of the bachelor's level, provides a list of competencies, normative content of training students of higher education reflected in the terms of learning outcomes, defined forms of assessment and requirements for the quality assurance system. The program includes fundamental humanities and major disciplines according to the field of study of students majoring in conducting, which ensures the training of bachelors who are able to independently read up on theoretical material, study significant choral and symphonic works aimed at creative search for solving professional problems.

The priority of the educational-professional program is the synthesis of theory and practice, which is reflected in various types of practical work of higher education students with choral and symphonic ensembles.

The innovativeness of the reviewed educational-professional program is that it is based on modern achievements of performing arts, education and science and ensures the implementation of comprehensive training of bachelors majoring in conducting.

I believe that the educational-professional program is aimed at the implementation of the latest methods and technologies, creative art projects in the field of conducting performance, which makes it possible to recommend it for the use at the Department of Choral , Opera and Symphony Conducting of Kharkiv I.P. Kotlyarevsky National University of Arts.

Professor, Head of the Department of Choral Conducting at the Robert Schumann University
(Dusseldorf, Germany)

Timo Nuoranne